

bye-bye

farewell departure
on a plane
to no place like home

on a plain
nowhere
alone

somewhere
err an adventure in air
and swear

to never leave or love or live
again

free fall free
from all suspense
again

hence ride the tale end is near (or write the trail ends there) everywhere but here
again

hear a sound –
a crash –
as ashes burn
around a mound

yearn to fly
again
in the sky
again

on wings to sing
bye-bye

over and over again and
again ...
