

maniacal mania

a marginal america,
impossible utopia,
delusional diaspora,
historical hysteria...

insatiable society,
dysfunctional democracy,
illogical ideology,
incredible hypocrisy...

*through the thorough
politics of rhetoric,
a pathetic apathetic
notion of a nation
mediated by media...*

A MANIACAL MANIA!!!

and we're off to see the wizard, the wonderful wizard because in wonderland, through the looking glass, we think we can we think we can we think we can follow the yellow brick road... somewhere over the rainbow,
the hills are alive with the sound of PANIC!

there's no place like home...
there's no place like home...
there's no place like home...
